

to have major neck surgery shortly after purchasing Brisk, delaying their progress. In fall of 2010 she took Brisk to Phoebe's Thornridge Manor to begin a full training program.

Suzanne and Brisk debuted at First Level in 2011 then moved up to Second and Third Level in 2012. The flashy chestnut is a lovely mover with plenty of talent, but as with many "athletic" horses of this caliber, he comes with special considerations. Phoebe explains, "He is very 'looky' and has been known to swiftly wheel into a 180." Actually, just prior to entering the ring for the Second Level Championship, he had a difficult time passing the judge's box at 'C'. He shied and whirled four times, but Suzanne managed to keep her composure and produced a respectable test. The pair scored 66.250% for the win.

In addition to keeping an eye on her students, Phoebe rode her own Wallstreet Prince (Wallstreet Kid-EM Davignette/Davignon) to win Second Level, Test 2 Open with 68.026% and placed fifth in her Second Level Championships with 67.105%. ■
