

In The Ribbons

All In The Family!

Four full siblings bred by Pat Limage/Bae Prid Farm, Gainesville, Va., qualified and competed in the GAIG Regional Championships at Willamston, N.C., held in November. The three geldings and one mare were all sired by ES Wallstreet Kid (Warkant/Eiger I) and out of Elite Mare Davignette (Davignon/Matcho x), both owned by Pat Limage. (Photo L-R) Willow Bae, 12, owned and ridden by Susan Harrington, Va., competes at PSG and I-1. Westbound Kid, 10, owned by Joan Fontes, N.C., and ridden by Jim Koford at PSG and I-1. Wallstreet Wisdom, seven, owned and ridden by Nina Hatcher, N.C., competes at First Level. Wallstreet Prince, six, owned by Phoebe DeVoe-Moore, Pa., is ridden by Claudia Kleinsmith at First Level and by Phoebe at Second Level. Wallstreet Kid is deceased, but Davignette is alive and well at age 16. Pat has retired from breeding but is proud to say Davi has made the career change to riding horse and is patiently helping Pat get back in the saddle after ten years of not riding. Davignette produced three other foals by Wallstreet Kid: Wrosette, eight, owned and ridden by Lauren Dearlove, Va., who plans to make their debut at Fourth Level in the near future; Wallstreet Romance, nine, owned by Phoebe DeVoe-Moore is a successful broodmare in her own right; and Wendolyn, 11, owned for several years by Karan Schwencer, Va., as a broodmare, was re-purchased by Pat Limage to become a performance horse. Unfortunately, Wendy suffered a pasture accident precluding that plan, but is now leased by Linda Sommers, Va., to continue producing future riding horses.
